NATIONAL WORKERS' COMP LAW FIRM AIDS HELPING HANDS PANTRY IN SAN BERNARDINO COUNTY

Contribution by Adelson, Testan, Brundo, Novell & Jimenez Part of Firm's National Community Support Program

SAN BERNARDINO, Sept. 28, 2017 – Attorneys and staff of the San Bernardino office of Adelson, Testan, Brundo, Novell & Jimenez (ATB), a leading workers' compensation defense law firm, recently showed their support for Helping Hands Pantry, which serves meals to as many as 10,000 people in need each week in San Bernardino County. The law firm made a financial contribution to the pantry and donated and delivered more than 350 pounds of food and 200 pounds of clothing.

A public charity created to benefit the community by providing food and other items to those in need, Helping Hands Pantry states that its mission is: "To serve, by providing a place where all in need can come for relief from hunger and find acceptance, while being assisted in finding other resources for their needs, both physical and spiritual."

"Participating in this effort was a special opportunity for our office to support Helping Hands Pantry in its extraordinary work to have a positive impact on the lives of so many people in our local community," said Collyn Gebauer, managing partner of the ATB office in San Bernardino. "Our entire staff and all attorneys in the office were inspired by commitment of the team at Helping Hands Pantry, and each of us was very enthusiastic about being involved in this effort."

For the law firm, the support for the Helping Hands Pantry is part of its ATB Cares, a national initiative started at the beginning of this year that involves each of its 26 offices around the country in various community outreach activities.
