NATIONAL WORKERS' COMP LAW FIRM ASSISTS PEACE4KIDS MOBILE KITCHEN VILLAGE IN LOS ANGELES

Contribution by Adelson, Testan, Brundo, Novell & Jimenez Part of Firm's National Community Support Program

VAN NUYS, August 14, 2017 – Attorneys and staff of the Van Nuys office of Adelson, Testan, Brundo, Novell & Jimenez (ATB), a leading workers' compensation defense law firm, recently showed their support for Peace4Kids, a non-profit organization supporting foster children in South Los Angeles. The law firm made a donation to the Peace4Kids Mobile Kitchen Village and several ATB attorneys, staff, and their family members joined the children and volunteers at a Mobile Kitchen Village event.

Besides interacting with the children and volunteers on the Mobile Kitchen, ATB's attorneys and staff partook in the lunchtime gathering, where the children shared personal achievements and were served the lunch made on the Mobile Kitchen.

Established 19 years ago, Peace4Kids serves approximately 250 current and former foster youth in South Los Angeles, providing "a community where youth in foster care discover a shared cultural experience." Built around a vision of "community as family" that "provides consistency, stability, and trust," Peace4Kids "guides youth to achieve the discovery that they are not alone in surviving the hardships of early trauma."

"We are pleased to provide support for the wonderful work of Peace4Kids, its Mobile Kitchen Village and volunteers, who are making a real difference in the lives of many foster children in the area," said Nicholas G. Kontogiannis, managing partner of the ATB office in Van Nuys. "The incredible energy and the enthusiasm of the children and the volunteers made a lasting impression on all of us and showed the Peace4Kids community approach is having a profoundly positive effect on the children."

For the law firm, the support for Peace4Kids and its Mobile Kitchen Village is part of its ATB Cares, a national initiative started at the beginning of this year that will involve each of its 27 offices around the country in various community outreach activities.
